

Bands for Beer Festival
2012

Live music between 12.30pm—6.30pm

Playing at the Beer festival this year we are delighted to be hosting three new acts along with the return of The Undercovers to close the festival.

Time	Band	Information
12.30pm - 1.30pm		Featuring electric guitar, bass and drums, Screen People are an energetic original three piece alternative rock band from Hertfordshire, UK. As well as creating music in the studio, Screen People love to perform at gigs, festivals, charity events and busk.
1.45pm - 2.45pm	Melissa Baker	Melissa has been wowing audiences across Hertfordshire, Cambridgeshire and London with her excellent performances. She has toured the UK with 'STARDUST' A Musical flashback, a show compelled of memorable musical numbers, dance & comedy.
3.00pm - 4.30pm		Formed in Cambridgeshire UK in 2009, Soulweaver are making a name as one of the tightest, hardest working and entertaining live bands around. With dynamics, quality and intensity, Soulweaver contain the essence of classic British rock bands such as Led Zeppelin and Cream but with a contemporary edge that could see them described as the British Foo Fighters. Their stunning debut album called Liberty has just been released containing 14 top quality original rock songs.
4.45pm - 6.15pm		The Undercovers are the perfect cover band for any occasion. They are a Cambridge based band that play covers of a number of modern Indie & rock bands including The Killers, Kings of Leon, Arctic Monkeys, Coldplay and many more.